ORDER:

In the reference 1st cited, the Addl. the Director General of Police, and Chairman, State Level Police Recruitment Board, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, has discharged Sri B.Subba Rao, SCT RSI, C.No.6417 of APSP Battalions, from the training for the reason that he has exhibited misconduct by absenting himself unauthorizedly from 12.11.2007 to till the date of his discharge as per the report of the Director, APPA, Hyderabad. Hence, Sri B.Subba Rao, SCT RSI, APSP Battalions, was, therefore, discharged from training in exercise of the powers vested under Rule 6 Sub-Para (i) of the A.P. Police (Stipendiary Cadet Trainee) Rules, 1999.

2. In the reference 2nd cited, Sri B.Subba Rao, SCT RSI (APSP) has represented to the Government to consider his case to undergo Induction Training in APPA in view of the circumstances explained in his representation Earlier Government have examined the request and rejected the same vide reference 3rd cited.

3. In the reference 4th cited, Sri B.Subba Rao, has represented to the Government stating that while he was undergoing 9 months Induction Training of SCT RSIs of APSP at Andhra Pradesh Police Academy, Hyderabad, from October 2007, he went to his native place in Nellore District for availing 3 days permission given by the authorities on the occasion of DIWALI Festival. On the last day, he met with an accident while he was travelling in autorikshaw. In that accident some luggage in the Auto fell on his body and sustained minor bruises. He felt back pain and hence he approached the doctor for treatment. The doctor advised him to take rest for one month and due to the reason he unable to attend the training in time. Subsequently, he got chest pain. The physician who treated him was referred to a specialist for thorough medical checkup and the specialist examined thoroughly and advised him to take rest and treatment for some more time. Hence, the treatment continued upto 21.01.2008 and after recovery from ill-health completely, Sri B.Subba Rao, SCT RSI (APSP) appeared before the training authorities on 22.01.2008. But the treatment authorities served the orders discharging him from training. He has also stated that it happened due to some unavoidable circumstances beyond his control, but not intentional. He has no necessity to avoid the training willfully because he is facing much financial troubles to maintain his big family. He has, therefore, requested the Government to reconsider his case to complete the training along with his batch mates.

4. Government after careful re-examination of the entire matter with the material available, hereby accord permission to the Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, and the Chairman, State Level Police Recruitment Board, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, to send Sri B.Subba Rao, SCT RSI, APSP, for ensuing induction training in APPA.

5. The Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, and the Chairman, State Level Police Recruitment Board, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, are hereby requested to take necessary action accordingly in the matter.
